

PINOT NERO TRENTINO DOC

Grape Variety

Pinot nero

Production Area

Pressano Hill

Exposure

West

Altitude

380 m a.s.l.

Soil

Loamy-clay, drained, fertile and deep

Soil Vitality

Very good biological quality

Vine Age

20-25 years

Harvest

Manual harvesting and grape selection in September

Vinification

Slow fermentation in open tonneaux and aging in French oak barriques

Yield

40 hl/ha

Characteristics

Appearance

Ruby red

Nose

Cherry, raspberry, wild berries complemented by delicate spicy aromas

Palate

Soft, elegant with velvety tannins that provide structure and persistence

Ritratti

Every portrait (ritratto) is a sublime synthesis of the bond between man and nature, a communion where wine refines into art, unveiling the enchanting biodiversity of the Avisian Hills

If it were a person
Elegant and refined